

EXECUTIVE
PEER GROUP COACHING

Improved leadership.
Insightful decisions.
INCREDIBLE RESULTS.

Organizations rise and fall based on leadership. As you go, so goes the business. The Executive Program focuses on supporting your development and decision making through individual business coaching and peer group collaboration to ensure more rise and less fall.

What is Peer Group Coaching?

CONFIDENTIAL PEER ADVISORY GROUP

Quarterly online gathering of Owners and their Executives led by a Chairperson with CEO and Executive experience. Members obtain perspectives from those who have and are experience similar challenges.

BUSINESS COACHING

Individual monthly one-on-one coaching sessions with your chairperson to work through the ultimate objective and goals of the company, the most pressing issues facing the business, and preparing you to perform beyond the demands of the business.

What can I expect from Peer Group Coaching?

Expect authentic and credible coaching that will elevate your leadership prowess resulting in growth and greater relevance of your company.

I am treading in new waters and not certain the best way forward.

Gain insight and clarity from other peers and a business coach to improve your planning and decision-making with confidence.

I need to spend more time working on the business and less IN the business.

An objective coach will help you identify and prioritize your activities and hold you accountable without regard to politics.

I'm concerned about the health of the company and need to get on a better track.

A sounding board of peers from other industries can be the inspiration to innovate new strategies and objectives for better performance

"I haven't run into this situation before and unsure of how to move forward."

Leverage the experiences of other executives and business coach to develop a path forward.

I am being pulled in the middle and not certain how to manage both ends.

Hear from other leaders' experiences and develop a plan that your peers and coach can help you fine-tune as you go along.

What is the time commitment?

This carefully curated schedule and program will produce a return on your invested time that will make a significant difference in your business.
